

CONTENTS

EVERYDAY POVERTY

---

- |                 |  |    |
|-----------------|--|----|
| Anita Káli      | “It Rose from Raw Life, like Sulphurous Vapours from the Swamp”: The Relationship between Social Sciences and Twentieth-Century Sociographic Prose | 5  |
| Janka Kovács    | Poverty, Illness, Insanity: Treating the Mentally Ill in the Hungarian Hospitals of the Brothers of Mercy (1740—1830)                              | 25 |
| Angelika Bálint | Strike for Housing: Issues of Addressing the Budapest Housing Crisis in the Early Twentieth Century through the Example of the Hétház Tenement     | 45 |
| Tamás Csíki     | From Poverty to Destitution: Agrarian Proletariat during the First World War   | 67 |
| Gábor Buzgó     | At the End of Life. The Welfare of the Elderly in Nagyléta, Bihar County, in the 1930s   | 91 |

FORUM

---

- |               |   |     |
|---------------|---|-----|
| Viktor Tátrai | Deprivation and PublicityRoland Perényi: A nyomor felfedezése Bécsben és Budapesten. Szociális riportok a 19–20. század fordulóján. | 117 |
|---------------|---|-----|

---

BOOKS

---

Rebellious Students
Pieter Dhondt – Elizabethanne Boran (eds): Student Revolt, City, and Society in Europe: From the Middle Ages to the Present.
– Petra Polyák	132
Experiencing Socialism that Never Was György Majtényi: Egy forint a krumplis lángos. A Kádár-kor társadalma.
– Péter István Pap	139
Papp Barbara – Sipos Balázs: Modern, diplomás nő a Horthy-korban.
– Gabriella Dohi	148
Authors	150
Contents	152
Abstracts	154