

Contents

András Kubinyi: Zsigmond Jakó, the Scholar of the History	1
„...my career has been a great adventure...” Interview with Zsigmond Jakó (Initiated by Mária Lupescu Makó).....	16
Bibliography	27
Géza Hegyi: Radna and the Radna Valley in the Middle Ages (1241–1469/1475).....	33
Károly Veress: The Experience of Understanding	55
Márton Albert-Lőrincz: The Horses Coaches and his Drivers or the Regulation of the Transylvanian School System Between the two World Wars	75

Workshop

Mihály Sebestyén: A New Volume of the Bisterfeld-Library.....	91
Rózsa Bellágh Nagy: „The Good and Wise” Woman in Funeral Orations in the 18. Century	94
Emőke Király: György Aranka, the Translator	107
Gergely Labádi: The Theory of Correspondence in the Hungarian Enlightenment.....	126
Jenő Murádin: Endre Kőváry, the Painter (1832–1918)	133
János Ráduly: The Old Runic Writing in the Franciscan Church from Moldvabánya (Baia) ..	145
Vilmos Táneczos: The Runic Writing from Moldvabánya (Baia).....	150

In memoriam

Zsigmond Jakó: Farevell from Iván Borsa.....	157
Elek Csetri: Farevell from András Magyarai	159
Attila Ellák T. Szabó: In memoriam Attila T. Szabó	161

Review

András Sallai: From the Interpersonality-Problem to the Interculturality’s Ethic	166
Mónika Barta: Communication as a Science of Accomodation.....	167

Society Communications

Ethnographic Conference (21. october 2006.)	170
Enlightenment, Transylvania – International Scientific Communication (12–14. October 2006.)	173
Request.....	177
Our Authors	178