

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

CEU Political Science Journal publishes scholarly research of merit focusing on the topics promoted by the Journal and meeting the standard requirements for academic research in terms of conceptualization, operationalization, methodological application and analysis of results. We strive to promote those works that approach a significant research problem and answer research questions of general interest in political science. Due to the fact that the Journal addresses a wide range of academics we encourage presentation of research to be made at a level where it is understandable to the vast majority most of the target group.

In our attempt to promote original works, we do not accept articles that are under review at other publications or articles that have parts that were published or are forthcoming under the same form in other places. Contributions using statistical analysis have to make the proof of the data available in order to allow replicability. Formal requirements are found in “the paper requirements” section of our webpage: www.ceu.hu/polccijournal Any paper that does not meet these requirements may be rejected.

Manuscripts should be no longer than 6,000 words (for exceptional cases please address the Editorial Board), and footnotes should provide references and should not including supplementary text. The appendix must be a maximum of 5 pages.

The Journal proposes, besides articles, a “work in progress” section, designed mostly for Ph.D. researchers that have not yet finished their work but are interested in making it public. The section from this issue includes a research with potential, which takes a lot of time to be finalized and whose authors are more than pleased to receive any comments at the provided e-mail addresses.

Starting with the first issue in 2007, CEU Political Science Journal encourages contributions in the form of book reviews. There are two standard requirements for the reviews: they should not exceed 1,200 words and should address books that are considered of general importance in political science and the related fields. If you are the author of a book you wish to be considered for review, please send us an e-mail and we can arrange the details concerning the mailing of the book. If you are interested in reviewing books for our Journal please send your CV to the e-mail addresses indicated in the “contact” section of the website.
