

Call for Papers

The “A” class academic journal of Pro Publico Bono – Public Administration edited by the National University of Public Service aims to provide platform for publishing academic articles written in the field of public service.

The aim of the papers is publishing research and professional experience in the fields of public service, public management and public politics, furthermore enhancing the interaction between the academic views and practical implementation, along with advertising the knowledge regarding the development in the quality of public administration.

We are looking forward to receiving articles in the following columns:

Academic proceedings and studies

The aim of this column is to introduce both the domestic and international research developments in the fields of political sciences, jurisprudence and social sciences and to exchange ideas between academic workshops and doctoral schools.

Professional forum

The aim of this column is to provide opportunity for scholars in the field of public administration to exchange experiences, to introduce new practice, and to present possible changes in the field of public service.

International Outlook

The aim of this column is to present the research developments in the field of international and social sciences with special focus on the strategy and practice of international public service, on the cooperation and advancement of European public administration system, on the endeavour of EU, and on the programme of the development in public administration produced by different international organisations.

Review

This column is dedicated to presenting the academic events, news, programme, reviews, and reports about different conferences in the fields of political sciences, constitutional theories and public administration.

Publishing

The journal is issued quarterly in Hungarian, and occasionally in English. The table of contents is in English, in German and in French.

The question of publishing or not a submitted article is the task of the editorial board according to their rules of procedure. A member of the editorial board, who is responsible for reporting about the received article, has to come forward with a suggestion of publishing

(or not) the given article based on the opinion of the literary adviser. The stylistic revision and report is anonymous.

The journal of Pro Publico Bono – Public Administration is also published online. Please find the online version under the following link: <http://uni-nke.hu/kutatas/egyetemifolyoiratok/pro-publico-bono-magyar-kozigazgatas> where the archives of the journal are also available.
