

Table of contents

Welcoming address	NORBERT KIS, TAMÁS KAISER
Perspectives & strategies	TAMÁS PILZ
	• Sustainability and Adaptability – or What can we Expect from the Hungarian Public Administration in the Coming Years?	8
	KATALIN UZSÁK
	• Quality public service for the competitiveness, the sustainable and resilient society, and the economy	30
	ANDRÁS TORMA – ZSOLT CZÉKMANN – PÉTER NYITRAI – BALÁZS SZABÓ – EVELIN RITÓ – ESZTER CZIBRIK – GERGELY CSEH
	• Thoughts about the Hungarian Administrative Strategy Making, with Special Regard to Central Authorities	46
	PÉTER SZEGVÁRI
	• The Challenges and Potential Deals of Hungarian Settlement Network Development	66
Rethinking public HRM for the 21 st century	ZOLTÁN HAZAFI – DÁVID LUDÁNYI
	• To the Margins of an Unfinished Law. Development Framework for HRM in the Public Service	78
	ZOLTÁN MAJÓ-PETRI
	• Human Resources, Office Work, Platform Economy and Value Propositions. What is Interesting and Important in the Post-Covid Recovery?	106
	GÁBOR ÁKOS CSUTORÁS
	• A Complex, Generation-Conscious, Demand-Driven Employee Retention Model in the Hungarian Public Administration	118

Table of contents

Call for papers	141
Table of contents in foreign language	143
Editorial Committee	145
Imprint	146